FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Wednesday, June 23, 2010

This morning's storm event, beginning at approximately 0340 hours, resulted in a NWS flash flood warning being issued at approximately 0440 hours. To date, there has been no flooding on the Milwaukee County Freeway system. The City of Greenfield reported minor street flooding from the 4600 block of W. Loomis Rd. to the 4200 block of W, Loomis Rd.

During the duration of this rain event, the expressway system experience 1 minor personal injury crash, and 4 minor property damage crashes, all due to limited visibility, traction, and following too closely.

Current flooding conditions:

No residential flooding reported at this time.

Root River in Franklin is out of its banks, leading to a closure of Oakwood between 60th and 76th streets.

Menomonee River in Wauwatosa is 1.5 feet below flood stage (11 feet)

Oak Creek in South Milwaukee is also 1.5 feet below flood stage.

Updates as they become available.
